Equido Clinics Information Pack

Horse level definition DRESSAGE

Beginner: Horse should be able to walk, trot, halt and turn. The horse may not have ridden in company before and this is a great opportunity to teach your horse in a safe secure environment.

Novice: Horse should be able to walk, trot, canter and understand the principles behind working in an outline. The horse should have been ridden in an enclosed space with other horses.

Intermediate: Horse should be able to work a horse in an outline with a light contact and be able to perform basic lateral work eg turn on the haunches, shoulder in, leg yield and simple changes.

Advanced: Horse should be able to perform lateral work to a more advanced level eg extensions, half pass, flying changes and pirouettes.

WHAT IS EQUIDO?

Equido is a concept which uses modern horsemanship techniques. It has been our goal to help horse owners and horses find a common ground of mutual understanding and trust so they can work together as a more effective team. Our highly experienced team of instructors are here to guide you and your horse forward working in a non confrontational manner we will help you become more disciplined in all aspects of your horsemanship.

Also available is the Equido training system, government recognized qualifications certified by LANTRA which use industry standards in horse care, blended with modern horsemanship knowledge as you would see demonstrated at our clinics. Equido is available as a home study course or as a concentrated learning course these courses are available at Ross Dhu Equestrian the home base of Equido.

Times and location - Map of how to get there, times, indoors or outdoors, what to bring - seating ect, parking, catering, do's and dont's.

HOW DO I BOOK AND PAY?

Payment - Deposit and balance ect. It is Equido's policy that when booking on any course/clinic that a deposit of half the total of the full payment be received along with your application form 3 weeks prior to the clinic and full balance received no later than 14 days prior to the course/clinic. All deposits will be non refundable due to venue costs and overheads. All cheques should be made payable to Equido Horsemanship.

For further information on any of the above please contact us at www.scottishhorsehelp.co.uk.

We look forward to meeting you and your horse.
